Dedicated to Alumni
of Heavener
High School

Since this is the 50th year that Heavener High School has had a graduating class, it seems appropriate that this Anniversary edition be dedicated to the Alumni of this school.

The Alumni of Heavener High School are included in various occupations. Many are professional people, doctors, lawyers, teachers, ministers, social workers, and nurses while others have entered trades and industries or have become farmers or housewives.

Whatever their occupations or professions the graduates of Heavener High are respected, sincere, and conscientious citizens of our great country.

(The Yearbook Staff is indebted to the Alumni Association for the following names of graduates of Heavener High.)

SENIOR WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1962, being of sound mind and good health do wish to leave many traits, qualities, and other skills to the Juniors of today and the Seniors of tomorrow.

As our last will and testament, we leave the following: Bertha Scott leaves locker 413 to anyone with patience enough to clean it out. Jim Scrivner leaves his old right end position to Larry Wisdom who had rather play tackle. James Timperley leaves the science lab to Mr. Bettes and Scott Farley, hoping they can manage without him. Linda Norwood leaves her baton to Sylvia Sonaggera. John Newcomer gives left halfback to Bud Westmoreland. Phyllis Goodwin wills her hook shot to Marlene Fortner. Fred Pugh leaves the pitcher's mound to Buster Coggins. Gail Faulkenberry, Pat Owens, and Brenda Roberts leave the Wolf Howls to any intelligent person with the will to work. Ira Dale Franklin leaves his comb to Melvin McKay. Rose Milligan and Doug Williams leave part of their brains to Bob Cherry and Billie Guinn although they don't actually need it. Roy Germany leaves the Pig Farmers to Duane Mead and John King. Velvalee wills her needle and thread to Julie Hogaboom. Dohna Williams leaves the office work to Nina Permitter. Marlene leaves the student council to Bing Lile. Sadie Hairrell wills her typewriter eraser to Shirley Jones. Bill Holt will gladly cut off part of his hair for Harry Prince. Kenneth Brand leaves his alertness in Literature to Kenneth Stites and D. L. Ray. Homer Jones leaves his typewriter to anyone who can make it type right. Clara Queen leaves her ability to talk to Glenda Lowe. Don Smith and Otis Dawes leave their Alg. II books to Ronny Tucker and Jim Copeland. Charlotte leaves her locker in the far corner to Judy Gore. Richard Janway, James Caldwell, and Butch Gilstrap can willfully have three inches of Arnold Beler's height. Tom Baukman wills his ability to talk to Urban Wakefield and Pete Harris. Joe Johnson and Pat Stinson can gladly have Henry Brown's ability to do class work since he has no trouble with it. Mickey Wynn, Charles Azlin, and Jim Gore leave the Soph. girls to Jerry Guinn and Gary Ollie, but not their three. William Higgins leaves his school interest to Jim Calhoun, Wilmer Duncan, and Cleo Ritter. Lana Elliott, Nancy Farrell, and Wona Williams leave the homemaking class to Kay Glenn, Lillian Blevins, and Eva Hall. Linda Stringer and Martha Renfro leave their band instruments to Cheryl Titsworth and Judith Turman. Stanley Fowler, L. J. Watkins, Jerry Hughes, and Koen Sykes leave the shop in the capable hands of Ray Brown. Chuck Hudlow leaves his artistic powers to Stanley Cagle and Jerrell Muck. Fred Cox, Mitchell Wright, and John Parks leave their honorary loafing positions on the Annual Staff to anyone intelligent enough to figure out how to get them. Katheryn Wheat leaves her marvelous voice to always be remembered. John Council, Oscar Sullivan, and Colin Kelley, along with Jim Blaylock leave the football squad without a coach. Linda Webster, Brenda Roberts, and Mary Hight are content with just getting to leave. M. C. Ollar leaves his position as Editor of the Annual to someone who can use the H. P. and C. method of typing. We all leave these Hallowed halls but not to anyone else, we're sort of taking them with us. Ole Heavener may not mean too much to you, but to us the memory will be cherished forever. Our final wish is that, "May God richly bless and keep each member of our following class."

JUNIOR HIGH

FRESHMAN WILL

We, the Freshman Class of 1962 of Heavener Jr. High School, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, in form and manner as follows:

To the entire school we leave the example we have set as worthy scholars and blameless students. Our record has been spotless and in all the annals of our career we have bestowed which have been awarded to individuals with complete consideration to the fitness of the recipient: Tim (Gut) Livesay bequeaths his nickname to Danny Blair. Edward Stinson leaves his bright smile to Linda Owen. Jamis Franklin leaves her short stature to Anita (Zip) Robertson. David Rowland leaves his first seat in Algebra to Bill Sullivan. Cheryl Turley inherits Nancy Gilstrap's loud mouth and wit. David Hinds leaves his toughness to Larry Barnes. Mike Mattison wills his serious nature to Paul Smittle. Gracie Fortner wills her basketball ability to Gwyndol Campbell. Nancy Franklin inherits Linda Benefield's blonde hair. Bobby Jones leaves his extra height to Darrell Fortner. Jerry (Spots) Cox leaves his freckles to Loyce (Red) Miller. Judy Bain wills her sophisticated attitude to Helen Edwards. Elton Ollar leaves his cowboy boots to anyone with small enough feet to wear them. Jim Brand leaves his cigarettes to "Kitten" and "Blue." Melinda Meeh leaves her driving ability to Pam O'Neal. Roger Cagle bequeaths 1/4 of his brain to Kerry Holcomb since he has plenty to spare. Tommy Haynes wills his vacant mind to Bill Warner. Shaelia O'Neal would leave her sweet disposition to someone if she had one. Don Ryburn bequeaths his messy locker to anyone who will clean it out. Jerry Queen gives his cows and horses to Carolyn Webb. Dennis Gregory and Jim Spangler leave their first string positions on the Junior High football team to Ronny Johnston and Mike Addison. Bill Martinez leaves his membership in the motorcycle club to Jerry Pebsworth. Donald Lewis bequeaths his football ability to Phillip Sanders. Wayne Sutton wills his good looks to David Hogan in the hopes he will take advantage of them. Jim Hall leaves his many fans and admirers and hopes they will not suffer. Sharon Copeland leaves her expression "you guys" to Martha Mead. Linda Faulkenberry, Anna Benefield, and Gail Webster bequeath their freckles to Linda Kirkley and Barbara Rowland. Jim Allinder wills his roll checking job to Gene Richards. Some of the Homemaking I girls, Florita Naylor, Wanda Miller, Willa Dean Clinton, and Barbara Hurst leave their aprons that they made to Carolyn Hendrix, Norma Watkins, Margie Taylor, and Elaine Ollar in hopes that they will be enlightened by their mistakes. Larry Roop, Bobby Davis, Bill Luman, and other FFA boys give their jackets to Ben Lord and Chuck Williams. Jerry Stewart, Roy Roberts, Charles McBride, and Jimmy Simmons just leave - - - they hope! June Dowell is happy to leave because she knows someone is waiting for her. Judy Clubb, Marilyn Pledger, and Linda Yandell, along with Carolyn Williams leave the Homemaking Class at peace once again.

C. Higgins.

The main function of the Future Farmers of America is to train boys in Farm work, management, and leadership.

Most of the boys know how farm work is done when they enroll. The management of a farm is taught from enrollment until graduation, but development of leadership is stressed.

When a freshman enrolls, he looks to experienced, older boys for guidance, then in turn he is looked to for guidance by boys who enroll the following year.

Some of the boys after graduation keep their name on the roll. This enables them to join in the activities of the chapter.

There are over 300,000 boys enrolled in the F.F.A. Oklahoma contributes 16,000 to this number. The Heavener Chapter proudly presents its 52 members to this great organization.

The members wish to express their gratitude and heartfelt thanks to their advisor, Mr. Thornton, for his understanding and friendly advice.
